

LESLEY NIEUWOUTD, RN, MN
BOARD-CERTIFIED NURSE

Kimberley Population Health Unit
4/9 Napier Terrace, Broome WA 6725, Australia | +61 8 9194 1630

Lesley Nieuwoudt, RN, is a remarkable nurse who serves patients as a Remote Area Nurse with The Kimberley Population Health Unit at WA Country Health Service in Broome, WA, Australia, which she joined in 2005. Remote health includes delivering core primary healthcare services, promoting systematic reform, and continuous quality improvement for aboriginal, government, and non-government patients.

Lesley acquired her nursing degree at B.G. Alexander College of Nursing in Johannesburg, South Africa, in 1994. She received her Master Degree of Remote and Indigenous Health in 2006 at the Centre for Remote Health in Alice Springs, NT, followed by her master degree of nursing at Curtin University of Technology in Perth, WA, in 2013.

TOP NURSE
in Australia

EDUCATION

- B.G. Alexander College of Nursing
- Curtin University of Technology
- Centre for Remote Health

AWARDS

- Member of the Council of Remote Area Nurses of Australia
- Member of the Australian College of Nursing

LESLEY NIEUWOUTD, RN, MN

“ Lesley is a member of the Council of Remote Area Nurses of Australia and the Australian College of Nursing.

”