

YVONNE I. DUFFIELD, RN, BHSC (NURS), MED, PHD

BOARD-CERTIFIED
REGISTERED NURSE

Challenger Institute of Technology
41 South Terrace, Fremantle WA 6160, Australia | +61 8 9239 8189

Yvonne I. Duffield, RN, BHSc (Nurs), MEd, PhD, is a seasoned registered nurse who retired from practice but remains active as Lecturer ASL1 at Challenger Institute of Technology in Fremantle, WA, Australia. She holds an impressive professional journey spanning 40 years and her expertise covers areas such as post-operative nursing, intensive care, coronary unit nursing, vocational healthcare training, and aboriginal nursing.

Yvonne attended Lucy Osbourne School of Nursing/Sydney Hospital for her nursing degree and Liverpool Hospital for her midwifery degree. In addition, she earned her bachelor degree of health science in nursing at Edith Cowan University (2000) and received a graduate diploma in educational studies in 2003, master degree of education in 2005, and PhD in justice education in 2014 at Murdoch University.

TOP
REGISTERED NURSE
in Fremantle, WA

EDUCATION

- Lucy Osbourne School of Nursing/Sydney Hospital
- Liverpool Hospital
- Edith Cowan University School of Nursing and Midwifery
- Murdoch University

AWARDS

- Member of the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency

YVONNE I. DUFFIELD, RN, BHSC (NURS), MED, PHD

“ To remain at the forefront of the nursing arena, Yvonne maintains an active professional membership with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency.

”