

NYREE L. PARKER, RN, BN, MN, CNS
 REGISTERED NURSE
 & CLINICAL NURSE SPECIALIST

Frankston Hospital of Peninsula Health
 2 Hastings Rd, Frankston VIC 3199, Australia | 61 3 9784 7777

Nyree L. Parker, RN, BN, MN, CNS, is a highly-regarded Registered Nurse and Clinical Nurse Specialist who serves patients at Frankston Hospital of Peninsula Health in Frankston, Victoria, Australia. Furthermore, she is Emergency Management/ BCP Consultant and Assistance in Care emergency (ACE) Volunteer Coordinator with Peninsula Health as well as Clinical Instructor of Emergency Management and Critical Care at Monash University. Nyree has an impressive professional journey spanning over 23 years and she specializes in emergency nursing.

Nyree holds a diploma in applied sciences in 1990 and bachelor degree of science in nursing in 1992 from Monash University. Her academic achievements also include a diploma of critical care nursing (1997), master degree of science in nursing with a focus on emergency medicine (2001), master degree in emergency management (2013), and postgraduate certificate in health promotional education (2014) at Monash University. Nyree additionally acquired a post graduate certificate in health promotion from Deakin University in 1998.

EDUCATION

- Monash University

AWARDS

- Clinical Nurse Specialist
- Dux of Group Award (2009)
- Trauma Nursing Core Course Instructor

TOP REGISTERED NURSE
 & CLINICAL NURSE SPECIALIST
 in Australia

NYREE L. PARKER, RN, BN, MN, CNS

“ Nyree L. Parker is highly-regarded in her field and also spends time as a volunteer for St. John’s Ambulance. ”