Jeanine Luke, RN, BSCN, MSCN is a leading registered nurse currently serving as a Clinical Instructor with Trent/Fleming University in Peterborough, Ontario, facilitating year 3 BScN students in the clinical setting and also on staff with Centennial College in Scarborough, where she is a Clinical Nursing Instructor in the Practical Diploma Program. Jeanine’s career in nursing began in 1986, when she graduated with her Nursing Degree from George Brown College.

Pursuing further education, she went on to earn her Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing with a Certificate in Leadership and Management for Nurses in 1998 from Ryerson University. From there, Jeanine earned her Master’s Degree in Community Health Nursing in 2005 from D’Youville College.

She is an inductee of the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing, and holds additional certifications in Basic Life Support and Advanced Cardiac Life Support. She has just completed the BOLT online teaching course from Centennial College on blended/ face to face teaching, in order to pursue continuing education. Featuring over three decades of experience in nursing, she has a special expertise in triage, health assessment, wound care, IV insertion therapy, mentoring, and technical skills.

To keep current with the new nursing developments and guidelines, Jeanine maintains a professional membership with the Registered Nurses Association of Ontario. She has dedicated her life to providing high quality care to her patients, and also has experience as a PATH mentor. Jeanine attributes her success to her motivation, love for learning and listening, and desire to share information.

She continues to focus on her education and strives to enhance her growth and development. In her free time, Jeanine enjoys exercising and reading.
